

The explosives go off early—and save Cat's life!

But then—Germans! How did they get here so soon? I've got to get moving.

You are missing him!
 That is not the way.
 We will BURN him! To the switchboard!

I knew the main switch
 must be off. But now—
 he will fizzle!

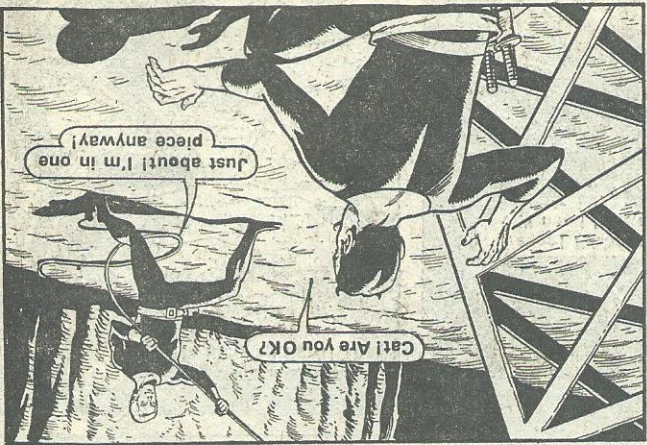

But suddenly the time-fuse ran out...
 AAARGHI
 AAIEEEEE!

Suffering snakes! The explosives have gone up!

Cathey! I'm coming out quicker than I went in!

Cat! Are you OK?
 Just about! I'm in one piece anyway!

So the fuse was set to go off in one hour indeed! And it went off in a few minutes! I thought you said you had learned how to set it!

Mon dieu, I am sorry. I thought I knew... but I am a knife-man not a technician. Is that not so?

Tur-tut, and I might have finished you off, with my miserable error.

It could have been worse.
 Mouse, I've a feeling you saved me from burning. Come on... we've got to rendezvous with the people who will get us home again.

A raid from the sea for Cat and Mouse, NEXT WEEK.
