

Captain,
if we can't gain height, obviously we need to throw out some weight - such as the Coca Cola bottles.

We can't do that Corporal. Artillery field guns, bullets, grenades, food - sure. But not Coca Cola bottles.

It just isn't done. The amount of paperwork, that would need to be filled in
for one thing.

Those
sand mountains
are too close for comfort.

Not really mountains Corporal -
more like sand hills.

I OUTRANK
YOU. I ORDER YOU
TO THROW OUT THE BOTTLES.

Although
I agree they do appear to be quite close. It's a bit worrisome, I agree.
