

Guard Tales

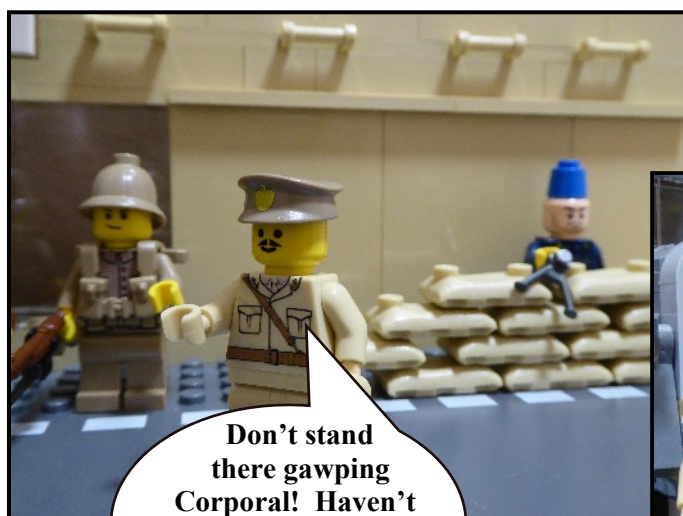

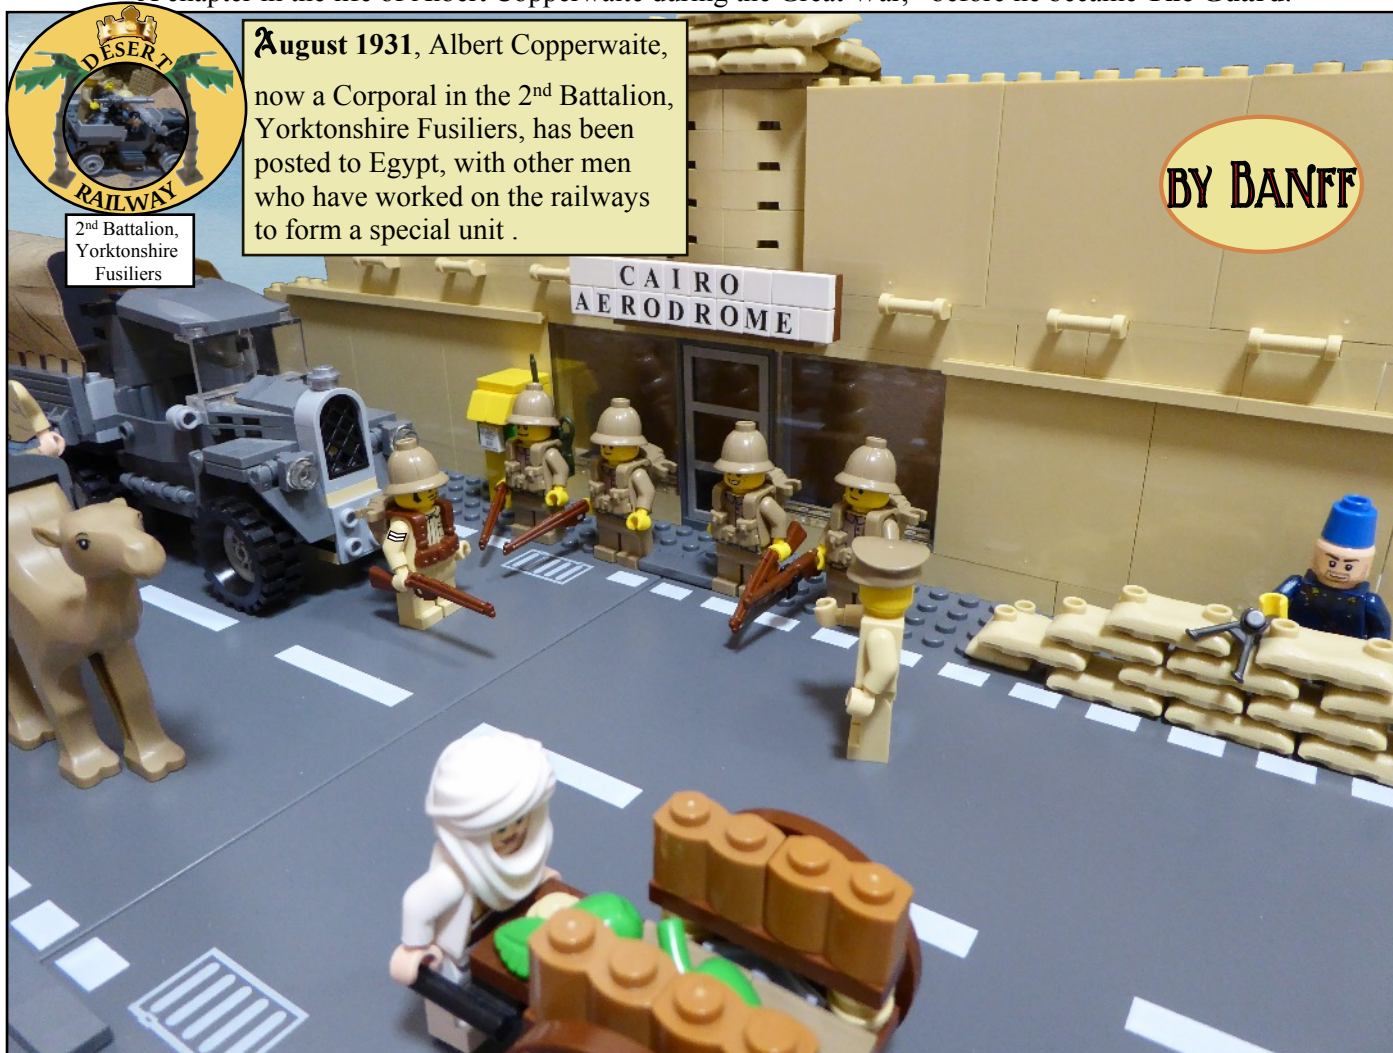

87. Desert Railway - the Beginning.

A chapter in the life of Albert Copperwaite during the Great War,* before he became The Guard.

August 1931, Albert Copperwaite, now a Corporal in the 2nd Battalion, Yorktonshire Fusiliers, has been posted to Egypt, with other men who have worked on the railways to form a special unit .

Don't stand there gawping Corporal! Haven't you seen a camel before? Get the men in the truck!

Sorry Sir. You heard the officer. MOVE!

And no, I haven't seen a camel before.
