

Guard Tales

86A.

THE SIX WISE MEN.

A dice throwing driven story.

(In which Banff challenges himself to create a story using Lego story dice.)

Hello, I'm Banff. Some of you maybe familiar with the story dice game.

Nine dice are used. Each face of the six-sided dice has a different image on it.

The dice are thrown.

And the nine images I've got to create a story from are behind me.

There was no cheating as regards the throwing of the dice. You can trust me... I'm a Lego Comic creator.

So why not make yourselves a cup of something...

...or better yet, pop out for afternoon tea... take your time, no rush.

And when you get back I will have shoe-horned, er, I mean artistically created a story... I hope. Gulp!
