

Ludwig who knew all sorts of information, knew about a rarely used door in one of the feet of the giant Battenburg soldier leading to a chamber.

Ludwig cut a key for the lock and on the night of the robbery took food and water to the chamber, where he would hide after the theft.

Ludwig checked his equipment and waited for nightfall.

The robbery was successfully carried out, with Ludwig stealing the gold bars.

