

So, decision time. Do we keep the comics or bin them?

Keep them. What better way to relive our happy childhood memories.

Ok, easy, easy.

We did indeed have happy memories of this house. It's a shame to sell it, but with Mum and Dad moving into a care home, we as a family have no need of it anymore. But that's life. Always moving on, nothing stays the same forever. I hope the new owners find living here as enjoyable as we have.

