

STARTS TODAY—An action-packed story with young Tim Brody leading his troop of Hussars into battle against the Boers!

the HOT-AIR HUSSARS

The war in South Africa against the Boers was going badly for the British in 1900, when Lieutenant Tom Brody of the Third Hussars first led his troop into action near Spion Kop—

DRAW SWORDS! CHARGE! CLEAR THE ENEMY FROM THAT HILL!

PAS OP! LOOK OUT!

THE BOERS SOON RAN WHEN THEY SAW US CHARGING, SERGEANT CRAGG!

PROBABLY THOUGHT THEY WERE UP AGAINST LUNATICS, SIR!

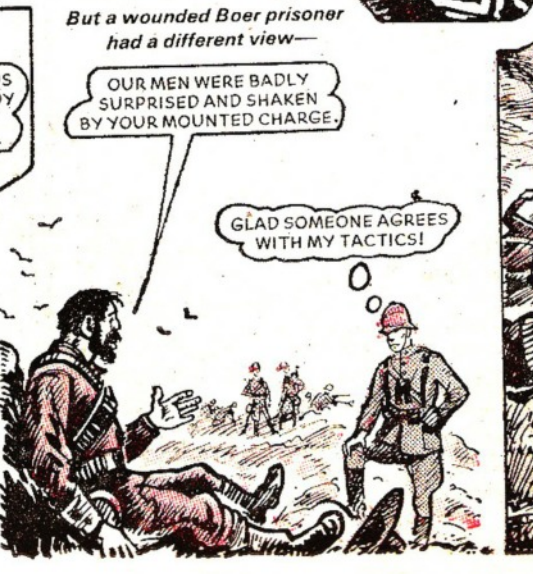

WE'D HAVE HAD HEAVY CASUALTIES IF WE'D DISMOUNTED TO ATTACK ON FOOT AGAINST EXPERT RIFLEMEN LIKE THE BOERS, SERGEANT.

IF YOU SAY SO, SIR.

DISMOUNT! TAKE UP INFANTRY POSITIONS!

IT'S YOUNG HOT-HEADS LIKE LIEUTENANT BRODY WHO ARE LOSING US THIS WAR, CORPORAL TATE!

But a wounded Boer prisoner had a different view—

OUR MEN WERE BADLY SURPRISED AND SHAKEN BY YOUR MOUNTED CHARGE.

GLAD SOMEONE AGREES WITH MY TACTICS!

The Boers counter-attacked—

RAPID FIRE! GIVE THEM A DOSE OF THEIR OWN MEDICINE!

AAAGH! TAKE COVER!
