

Whistle contacted McGill and asked me to give you a message.

You're needed back in Yorkton. Trouble's brewing.

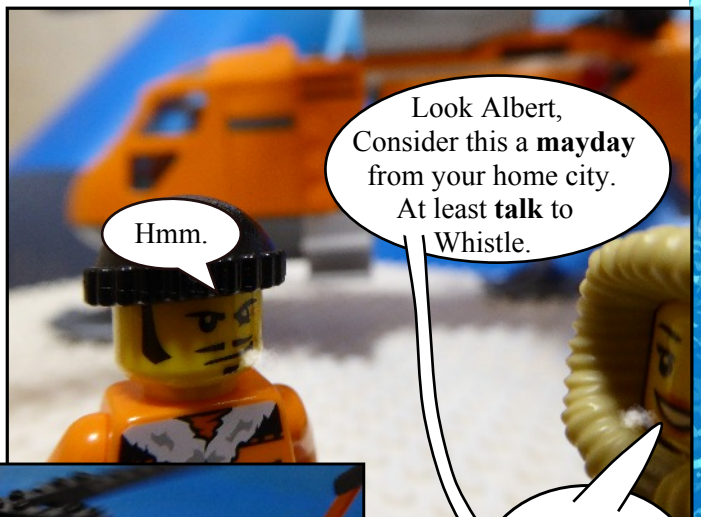

Not sure I would be very welcome in Yorkton at the moment.

I don't anything about that, Albert...

From what I've read & heard, Yorkton has changed a lot, and not in a good way, whilst you've been away...

Hmm.

Look Albert, Consider this a mayday from your home city. At least talk to Whistle.

Doctor's orders. Your friends need your help.

Don't forget to visit me & McGill. So long.
