

UNDERGROUND!

When the Germans occupied most of Europe during World War II, underground resistance movements grew to fight against them. Norway was no exception. But the Gestapo never relaxed its vigilance and one night in 1943, when a fishing boat nosed up a fjord, hidden eyes were watching . . .

BJORN! GOOD TO SEE YOU AGAIN.

AND YOU, OLSEN! COME, WE MUST GET THE STUFF YOU BROUGHT HIDDEN QUICKLY. THE NIGHTS ARE SO SHORT NOW IT'S HARDLY DARK AT ALL.

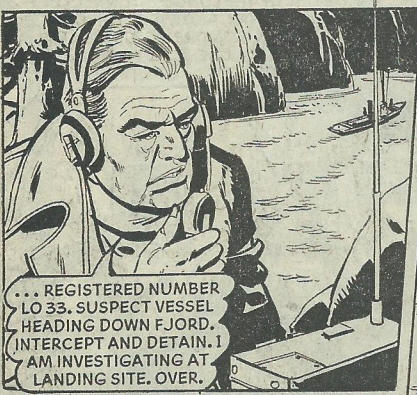

YOU HAD NO TROUBLE ON THE TRIP FROM LERWICK? WHAT TASK DO WE HAVE?

TROUBLE? NO, WE DODGED A COUPLE OF GERMAN PATROL BOATS. THAT WAS ALL. LONDON SAY WE ARE TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE IRON ORE SUPPLIES NEEDED BY THE GERMANS, YOU KNOW WHAT THAT MEANS? THE RAILWAY FROM SWEDEN!

ACH SO! JUST AS I THOUGHT, AN ENEMY SUPPLY RUN FOR NORWEGIAN TRAITORS. I HAVE LONG SUSPECTED THIS PLACE. NOW IT IS TIME TO CLOSE IN!

... REGISTERED NUMBER LO 33. SUSPECT VESSEL HEADING DOWN FJORD. INTERCEPT AND DETAIN. I AM INVESTIGATING AT LANDING SITE. OVER.

And so . . .

DO NOT MOVE! YOU ARE UNDER ARREST! GET YOUR HANDS UP!

TURN ROUND, BACKS TO ME! SLOWLY! I SHALL SHOOT AT THE FIRST SIGN OF A TRICK!

GESTAPO!

AARGH!

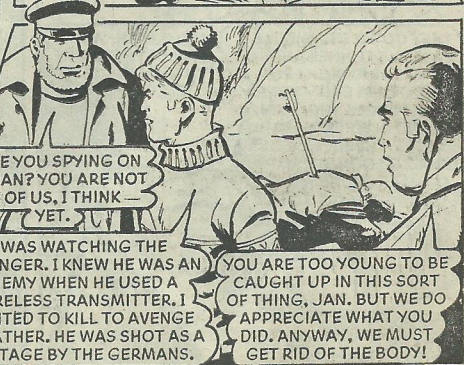

WHAT...?

JANI! HE'S MY DEAD BROTHER'S BOY, OLSEN! IS THE HUN DEAD?

I DID RIGHT?

YOU CERTAINLY DID, JANI! YES, THE GESTAPO SWINE IS DEAD!

WERE YOU SPYING ON US, JAN? YOU ARE NOT ONE OF US, I THINK —

YOU ARE TOO YOUNG TO BE CAUGHT UP IN THIS SORT OF THING, JAN. BUT WE DO APPRECIATE WHAT YOU DID. ANYWAY, WE MUST GET RID OF THE BODY!
