WARRIOR WEEKLY

DURING World War I, Private Ben Benson ran Warrior Weekly, a special newspaper for the British troops fighting in France. He sought out Lieut. Lundy, his Company Sports Officer.

I'D LIKE TO REPORT SOME FOOTBALL MATCHES FOR WARRIOR WEEKLY, SIR. ARE THERE ANY GAMES BEING PLAYED TODAY?

THERE AREN'T MANY MATCHES, BEN. LACK OF FOOTBALLS IS THE TROUBLE. TRY THE ROYAL HORSE ARTILLERY LINES THOUGH. THEY'RE SUPPOSED TO BE PLAYING THE WESSEX REGIMENT.

ARE YOU TAKING SUPPLIES ANYWHERE NEAR THE R.H.A. LINES? HOW ABOUT A LIFT!

SURE, CHUM! HOP UP!

HEY, WHO'S GETTING ALL THE FOOTBALLS?

THE NORTHSHIRES! THEIR C.O. HAD THEM SENT FROM BRITAIN FOR A SPECIAL GAME TOMORROW!

HERE YOU ARE, THEN MATE, THE R.H.A. LINES!

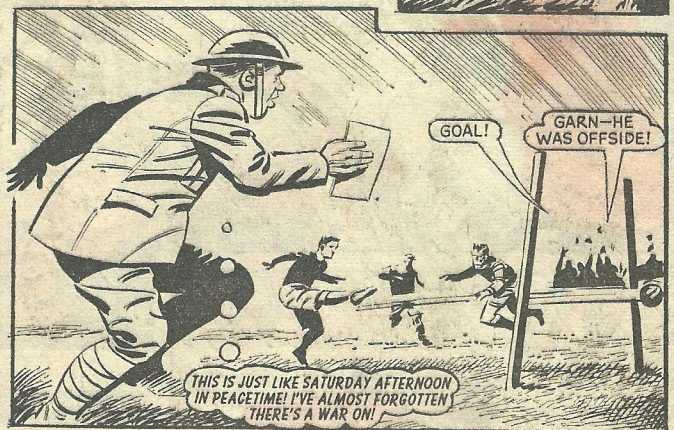

THANKS VERY MUCH. IT LOOKS AS IF THE GAME'S ALREADY STARTED!

THESE BLOKES ARE GOOD! I'M ENJOYING THIS GAME!

COME AWAY, THE GUNNERS!

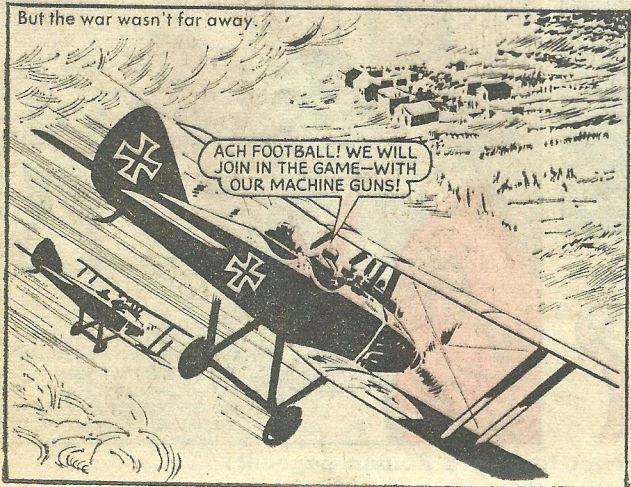

GET STUCK INTO THEM, WESSEX!

GOAL!

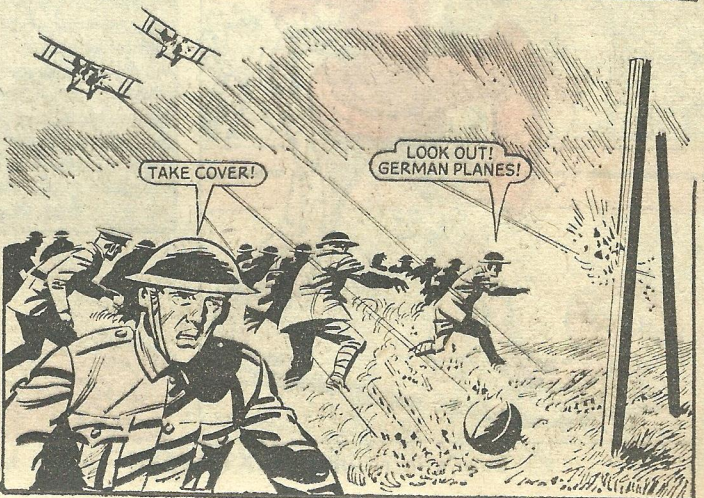

GARN—HE WAS OFFSIDE!

THIS IS JUST LIKE SATURDAY AFTERNOON IN PEACETIME! I'VE ALMOST FORGOTTEN THERE'S A WAR ON!

But the war wasn't far away.

AH FOOTBALL! WE WILL JOIN IN THE GAME—WITH OUR MACHINE GUNS!

TAKE COVER!

LOOK OUT! GERMAN PLANES!
